Re: Trepanier v. County of Volusia

Dear Michael:

I want to express my thanks and that of the County of Volusia for your help, hospitality, and guidance in obtaining testimony and exhibits that enabled a favorable ruling in this case. Judge Rouse declared that the "public has a right by custom to drive and park on the beach on the plaintiff's private property." He further found that the evidence is undisputed that beach driving in this area dates back to the early 1900s.

It was a pleasure meeting you and thank you again for your assistance in this matter.

Cordially yours,
